Dear

CARRON COMPANY LIMITED (NOW DISSOLVED)
SUBJECTS: ROADWAY KNOWN AS ELLIOT TERRACE, FALKIRK

Thank you for your request dated 22 October under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (FOISA). In your request you ask:

- 1 Whether there has been a change to the ownership of the roadway since you last wrote to us on 17 March 2016.
- 2 What our stance is regarding traffic management on the roadway?

In response to question 1, I can advise that there has been no change since you last wrote to us. The QLTR has not sold off the roadway and, as my predecessor previously advised you in his letter of 18 April 2016, the QLTR granted a pedestrian and vehicular servitude right of access affecting part of it.

As regards question 2, we infer from your photograph that your concern relates to management of the access to the site. We consider that to be a matter for the site developer and not one for this office.

Finally you have asked whether you may provide a copy of this reply for police use. We assume you mean for insurance purposes, but in any event we have no objection to you providing a copy.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which your request has been handled, you do have the right to ask us to review it. Your request should be made within 40 working days of receipt of this letter and we will reply within 20 working days of receipt. If you require a review of our decision to be carried out, please write to The QLTR, Scottish Government Building, Victoria Quay, 1B-Bridge, Edinburgh, EH6 6QQ, or for requests sent by e-mail to coqltr@copfs.gsi.gov.uk.

The review will be undertaken by staff not involved in the original decision making process.

If our decision is unchanged following a review and you remain dissatisfied with this, there is a right of appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner under section 47(1) of FOISA.

Should you subsequently wish to appeal against the Commissioner's decision on such an appeal, there is a right of appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law only.
